

Amy Curran

Tara Voogel

GNEM Patients and
NDF Patient Advocacy Program
Managers

GNEM SYMPOSIUM SPEAKER SERIES

presented by The Neuromuscular Disease Foundation

“Practical Tips, Devices and Gadgets to Help Make Life with Neuromuscular Disease Easier”

Friday, July 16th 2021 • 10am PST

Sponsored by: Rotary Club of Beverly Hills

Introduction & Summary Slide for:
Practical Tips and Devices to Help Make Life with Neuromuscular Disease Easier

An Overview of what to expect in this talk:

- An introduction to assistive & adaptive equipment, implements & gadgets
 - Adaptive aids are devices or equipment which enable a person with physical disability to perform daily activities either with or without help from another person.
- Learn about the various devices and options available to you when choosing a suitable equipment
- Hear & see demo of the use of some functional/practical equipment
- Participate and share a piece of equipment that you find helpful

Disclaimer:

- Content provided on this presentation, including information that may be provided directly or by linking to a third-party website is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute endorsement by NDF or its affiliates of any websites or specific products.
- This patient resource presentation and download-able document do not provide medical advice.

GNEM SYMPOSIUM SPEAKER SERIES

presented by The Neuromuscular Disease Foundation

Speaker Series #71621

Amy Curran & Tara Voogel

FINAL HIGHLIGHTS:

Practical Tips and Devices to Help Make Life with Neuromuscular Disease Easier

Key Takeaways

- There are many adaptive devices options available for us with a muscle disease.
- We need to try out and investigate the ones which would work for individual unique ability.
- Technology is expanding at a rapid speed which benefits us, and many more appropriate devices are constantly coming on the market.
- Always keep your safety in mind when choosing devices.

